

Springfield Regional Arts Council presents First Friday Art Walk

Experience Springfield's vibrant art scene during First Friday on October 3rd, with events and exhibits happening across downtown Springfield between 5 PM & 10 PM. It's the perfect night to explore, connect, and discover something new.

Creamery Arts Center

October 3 | 5-8 PM

Celebrate the beauty of nature at the opening of Pure Enjoyment, presented by Brewer Science. This juried exhibit highlights harmony and creativity through art, with live music by the Claire Herzog Trio. Join us at The Creamery Arts Center during First Friday Art Walk.

Gailey's Gallery

Oct 3, 6-9 PM

See the Youth Art Show at Gailey's this October! Featuring work from local students and live piano music by Cale Goldsberry during First Friday Art Walk.

Carolla Arts Exhibition Center

Oct 3, 6-9 PM

Carolla Arts Exhibition Center presents an exhibition examining America's evolving consumption habits, exploring desire, excess, and the stories shaping what we believe we need.

Historic Gillioz Theatre

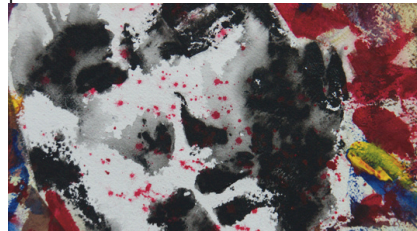

Open 6 to 9

First Friday Fright Walk at the Gillioz brings spooky fun with a trunk-or-treat in the hazy lobby, eerie exhibits upstairs, and themed drinks at the Gallery bar, plus live music by MOJO from 6:30-8:45 PM. Free admission, doors open 6-9 PM this Friday!

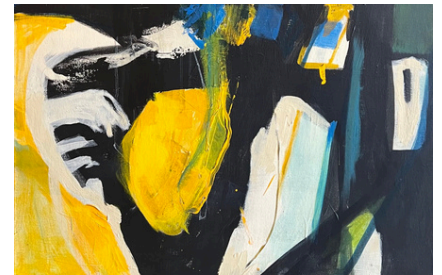

Park Central Branch Library

6:30-9 PM

The featured artist will be Doug Steere with his exhibit "Abstract Art with Tremors". Steere says "Painting is therapeutic. My painting started during the pandemic as a release, and it has evolved into something greater — a pleasure."

Obelisk Gallery

6 PM - 10 PM

Obelisk Home kicks off October's First Friday with the opening of echoes of now by Stephanie Cramer, featuring bold works. Join the reception from 6-10 PM in the Main Gallery and experience art that embraces both vulnerability and hope.
